

The current fire status for the Township is in the moderate to high range. The ease that a fire may start is high and the sustainability of a fire to burn is moderate to high.

The Township rating is set to “no daytime burning” and will be for some time. Residents should not be burning during the day and if burning in the evening should be very cautious and make sure to have a hose ready.