

Modified Services

Starting the week of July 6, both branches of the South Algonquin Library will be reopening, with modified services including curbside pickup service.

To facilitate the curbside pickup, we have purchased a web-based program called OPAC. This program will allow residents to go online at home, search our library inventories and select the books they would like to pickup.

Curbside service is a way for the library to provide materials to the public safely during COVID-19. Materials will be picked up by library patrons, by appointment, after placing holds in advance.

Library access is limited to staff only. The public will not be permitted into the library buildings. Print and DVD/audio books are available to reserve for curb-side pickup up.

WHAT HAPPENS DURING THESE CURBSIDE HOURS?

- Staff are available by phone, email and web OPAC (see below)
- Staff will receive and process orders for pickup. Staff will contact patrons to arrange a pickup time
- Staff will be quarantining, sanitizing and processing returned materials
- Wi-Fi is available in Madawaska during service hours. In Whitney, it's available 24/7

Web OPAC

Web OPAC is an online search screen that lets residents search our library from any computer or device with internet access. This provides access to both collections, patrons can access their accounts, search and make requests online 24/7.
