

PRESENTS

Bob Henderson - *Every Trail Has a Story
Thursday, August 23 6:30pm - 8:30pm
at The Mad Musher in Whitney

Starting as a camper and canoe tripping staff member at Camp Ahmek in Algonquin Park, Bob Henderson developed a lifelong interest in Canadian travel heritage and travel guiding. Beginning in 1994, he continues to write a regular heritage travel feature for Kanawa Magazine. In 1995 Bob completed his Ph.D. concerning approaches to travel guiding from the University of Alberta. A former professor of Outdoor Education at McMaster University, Bob has been working on field-based courses with The University of Alberta, Laurentian University, Brock University, McMaster University and the University of Edinburgh. Bob is a resource editor for Pathways: The Ontario Journal of Outdoor Education and Nastawgan: The Quarterly Journal of the Wilderness Canoe Association. Bob is an accomplished author of five non-fiction books and numerous articles for various publications.